A NOTE TO PARENTS

The swim schools listed in this directory were recommended by parents and members of the disability community. While many have experience working with children with disabilities, every child is unique. Please contact providers directly to discuss your child's needs, lesson availability, instructor qualifications, and pricing.

OUR HOPE

We hope this directory helps more children build confidence in and around the water while giving families greater peace of mind. Every child deserves the opportunity to learn lifesaving water skills in an environment where they feel safe, supported, and encouraged.

TIPS FOR FAMILIES

- ✓ Contact swim schools directly to discuss your child's needs, accommodations, and lesson options.
- ✓ Ask about instructor training and experience working with children with disabilities.
- ✓ Start with a trial lesson if available to find the best fit.
- ✓ Always supervise children around water.

FINDING THE RIGHT FIT

Every child is unique, and the right swim program can make all the difference. These schools were recommended by parents who understand the value of patience, inclusion, and celebrating every small success.
